Carol White Mohamed

Director

Office of Affirmative Action, Diversity and Inclusion

Carol W. Mohamed has worked in Human Resources, Diversity and Inclusion since 1979, and has held manager and director-level positions at Equitable Resources and Duquesne Light Companies prior to joining the University of Pittsburgh in 1994 as a director in the Office of Human Resources. In 2007 she was promoted to direct the University's Office of Affirmative Action, Diversity and Inclusion. Ms. Mohamed has been on the cutting edge of developing and administering policies and procedures associated with the management and enforcement of Title VII, Title IX, ADA and general diversity issues. She drafted Equitable's very first Sexual Harassment Policy and is an advisor on the maintenance of University of Pittsburgh nondiscrimination and anti-harassment policies and procedures, ensuring their adherence to Federal and State regulations. She serves the University as Title IX Administrator, ADA Coordinator and as a partner or client consultant to its various schools and departments for the advancement of diversity, inclusion and general fairness. A graduate of Mercyhurst College, Ms. Mohamed is a Developmental Dimensions International (DDI) Certified Facilitator and holds a Campus Title IX Coordinator and Administrator Certification from the Association of Title IX Administrators (ATIXA) and the National Center on Higher Education Risk Management (NCHERM).
